LIBERTY MEDIA REPORTS THIRD QUARTER FINANCIAL RESULTS

Englewood, Colorado, November 9, 2009 — Liberty Media Corporation (“Liberty”) (NASDAQ: LCAPA, LCAPB, LINTA, LINTB, LMDIA, LMDIB) today reported third quarter results for Liberty Capital group, Liberty Interactive group and Liberty Entertainment group. Highlights include(1):

- Grew adjusted OIBDA(2) at QVC by 10% on revenue growth of 2%
- Increased adjusted OIBDA at Starz Entertainment by 19% and revenue by 8%
- Raised $1.0b in senior secured notes at QVC, extended maturities through 2019
- Received $250m SIRIUS XM loan repayment; loans now completely repaid, still hold bonds
- Mailed proxy statement for split-off of Liberty Entertainment Inc. (LEI) and business combination with DIRECTV, set stockholder vote for November 19th
- Reached 52-week highs on all Liberty stocks in the past two months

“Building on momentum from the second quarter, QVC, Starz, and SIRIUS XM posted strong operating results,” stated Greg Maffei, Liberty President and CEO. “Additionally, we made significant progress on the LEI/DIRECTV transaction having received our private letter ruling from the IRS and mailed our proxy statement.”

Liberty Media’s Board of Directors approved a $500 million Liberty Starz stock repurchase authorization and has decided not to proceed with reverse stock splits for the Liberty Capital and Liberty Interactive groups. The redesignation of Liberty Entertainment common stock into Liberty Starz common stock is expected to be completed immediately following the split-off of LEI.

LIBERTY INTERACTIVE GROUP — Liberty Interactive group’s revenue increased 2% to $1.8 billion and adjusted OIBDA increased 11% to $345 million. The increase in revenue and adjusted OIBDA was primarily due to favorable results at QVC.

QVC

QVC’s third quarter consolidated revenue increased 2% to $1.7 billion and adjusted OIBDA increased 10% to $343 million.

“QVC returned to a positive position for US and international net revenue and adjusted OIBDA”, stated Mike George, QVC President and CEO. “These results reflect the success of our sales and cost initiatives along with what appears to be a stabilization of consumer spending in the US and UK. During the quarter we announced QVC’s exclusive distribution agreement with Liz Claiborne New York - our latest move for QVC to be the must-visit destination for exclusive, compelling content. We continue to invest in our technology makeover and are on course with our launch of a new global eCommerce platform, a global customer relationship and call center management platform, warehouse automation investments and our multimedia infrastructure. We turned the economic downturn into an opportunity and built a stronger, leaner, more financially sound and technology rich company for the long-term.”

QVC’s domestic revenue increased 2% to $1.1 billion and adjusted OIBDA increased 10% to $244 million. For the quarter, the mix of product shifted from the jewelry and apparel product areas to the home and accessories areas. The average selling price for the third quarter decreased 1% from $47.89 to $47.52 and the total number of units sold increased 1% to 25.0 million from 24.8 million. Returns as a percent of gross product revenue decreased from 20% to 19% due to the shift in the sales mix to home products and accessories, which typically have lower return rates. QVC.com sales as a percentage of domestic sales increased from 24% to 28% for the third quarter. Adjusted OIBDA margin(2) for the domestic operations increased 163 basis points to 22% for the third quarter due to a higher gross margin percentage resulting from more efficient warehouse operations and freight savings as well as a reduction in franchise and sales tax expense related to favorable audit settlements.

QVC’s international revenue remained flat in the third quarter at $569 million despite the unfavorable foreign currency exchange rates in the UK and Germany and including favorable exchange rates in Japan. International adjusted OIBDA increased 9% in the third quarter to $99 million. International adjusted OIBDA margins increased 138 basis points to 17% due primarily to a favorable gross margin percentage as a result of lower warehouse and freight expenses across each market and a favorable inventory obsolescence provision in the UK and Germany. Excluding the effect of exchange rates, international revenue increased 1% overall and international adjusted OIBDA increased 9%.

QVC UK’s revenue in local currency grew 6% in the third quarter due to growth in apparel and beauty product sales. QVC UK’s average selling price increased 5% for the third quarter and units sold increased

2%. QVC UK experienced a higher gross margin percentage due primarily to a favorable obsolescence provision, lower warehouse expenses and a reduction in realized inventory foreign exchange losses.

QVC Germany’s revenue decreased 1% in local currency in the third quarter. QVC Germany’s average selling price increased 8% for the third quarter, while units sold decreased 9%. Germany experienced a higher gross margin percentage primarily due to a favorable obsolescence provision and lower warehouse and freight expenses. The accessories category, including beauty products, increased as a percent of product sold, from 19% to 29% in the third quarter.

QVC Japan's revenue decreased 1% in local currency during the third quarter due in part to continued deterioration of economic conditions. QVC Japan achieved unit sales growth of 6% but experienced a decline in the average selling price of 7%. Japan experienced sales growth primarily in the accessories, apparel, and health and beauty categories which was more than offset by declines in the jewelry and home product categories. QVC Japan's gross margin percentage remained relatively stable.

During the third quarter, QVC issued $1.0 billion principal amount of 7.5% senior secured notes due 2019 at an issue price of 98.278%. QVC used all of the net proceeds from such offering to fund the purchase and cancellation of an equivalent principal amount of outstanding term loans under QVC's senior secured credit facilities that mature in 2014. QVC's outstanding bank debt was $3.2 billion at September 30, 2009.

eCommerce Businesses

Liberty Interactive's eCommerce businesses include Provide Commerce, Backcountry.com, Bodybuilding.com, BUYSEASONS, LOCKERZ, and The Right Start. In the aggregate, the eCommerce businesses increased revenue by 2% to $160 million and adjusted OIBDA by $2 million to $5 million. The increase in revenue was primarily driven by two small acquisitions made during 2008. Exclusive of the effects of such acquisitions, revenue decreased 4% in the third quarter versus the prior year as the economic downturn continues to negatively impact the eCommerce businesses.

Share Repurchases

There were no share repurchases of Liberty Interactive stock during the third quarter of 2009. Liberty has approximately $740 million remaining under its Liberty Interactive stock repurchase authorization.

The businesses and assets attributed to Liberty Interactive group are engaged in, or are ownership interests in companies that are engaged in, video and on-line commerce, and currently include Liberty's subsidiaries QVC, Provide Commerce, Backcountry.com, Bodybuilding.com, BUYSEASONS, LOCKERZ, and The Right Start, and its interests in IAC/InterActiveCorp, HSN, Ticketmaster Entertainment, Tree.com, Interval

Leisure Group, Expedia and GSI Commerce. Liberty has identified wholly-owned QVC as the principal operating segment of Liberty Interactive group.

LIBERTY ENTERTAINMENT GROUP — Liberty Entertainment group's revenue increased 2% to $369 million and adjusted OIBDA increased 16% to $86 million for the quarter. The increase in revenue was primarily driven by results at Starz Entertainment. The increase in adjusted OIBDA was due to positive results at Starz Entertainment partially offset by expenses related to the proposed split-off of LEI.

Starz Entertainment, LLC

Starz Entertainment's revenue increased 8% to $301 million and adjusted OIBDA increased 19% to $93 million. The $23 million increase in revenue was due to a $22 million increase in rates and a $1 million increase resulting from growth in the average number of subscription units. In the third quarter, Starz experienced an average subscription unit increase of 1% and Encore average subscription units decreased 1% for the quarter.

Starz Entertainment's operating expenses were flat and SG&A expenses increased $8 million to $35 million for the quarter. Operating expenses were flat primarily due to a reduction in license fees as a result of a reduction in the percentage of first-run movie exhibitions (which have a relatively higher cost per title) as compared to the number of library product exhibitions and lower effective rates, offset by the amortization and write-off of production costs for original series. The increase in SG&A was primarily due to higher sales and marketing expenses and higher personnel costs, which remain 5% lower for the first nine months of 2009 compared to the same period in 2008.

Starz Chairman and CEO Robert B. Clasen said, "Starz Entertainment had another strong quarter, increasing revenue by 8% and adjusted OIBDA by 19%. We do remain concerned about flat or declining subscriber numbers among some of our affiliates — driven by general economic conditions and rate hikes, but are working with our affiliates to improve results. However, we are encouraged by the Television Everywhere initiative which will bring our programming to consumers via the Internet and by the early response to our dramatic series Spartacus: Blood and Sand which will premiere on the Starz channels in January."

Share Repurchases

There were no share repurchases of Liberty Entertainment stock during the third quarter of 2009.

The businesses and assets attributed to Liberty Entertainment group are engaged in, or are ownership interests in companies that are engaged in, television and internet distribution and programming, and currently include Liberty's subsidiaries Starz Entertainment, Liberty Sports Group, and PicksPal, and its interests in equity affiliates GSN LLC, WildBlue Communications and DIRECTV. Liberty has identified Starz Entertainment as the principal operating segment of Liberty Entertainment group. Liberty issued the Liberty Entertainment group tracking stock on March 4, 2008. The assets and businesses attributed to the Liberty Entertainment group were previously attributed to the Liberty Capital group. For purposes of presentation, we treat the assets and businesses attributed to the Liberty Entertainment group as though they had been attributed to the group since January 1, 2008.

LIBERTY CAPITAL GROUP — Liberty Capital group's revenue decreased 22% to $171 million while adjusted OIBDA deficit improved by $21 million for the quarter. The decrease in revenue was primarily due to a $41 million decrease in theatrical revenue and a $9 million decrease in home video revenue at Starz Media. The decrease in adjusted OIBDA deficit was primarily due to the timing of theatrical and home video revenue and related expenses associated with films released by Starz Animation and Overture Films.

Starz Chairman and CEO Robert B. Clasen said, "Starz Media faced challenges in the third quarter, including a difficult economic environment for DVD sales and the disappointing performance of two Overture Films: Pandorum and Capitalism: A Love Story. However, Law Abiding Citizen, starring Jamie Foxx, which premiered in October, has already generated more than $60 million in domestic box office, well beyond projections, making it the best performing Overture Film release to date and we had a good opening this past weekend for Men Who Stare at Goats.”

Share Repurchases

There were no share repurchases of Liberty Capital stock during the third quarter of 2009. Liberty has approximately $119 million remaining under its Liberty Capital stock repurchase authorization.

NON-GAAP FINANCIAL MEASURES

This press release includes a presentation of adjusted OIBDA, which is a non-GAAP financial measure, for each of Liberty's tracking stock groups and each of QVC, Starz Entertainment and Starz Media together with a reconciliation to that group's or entity's operating income, as determined under GAAP. Liberty defines adjusted OIBDA as revenue less cost of sales, operating expenses, and selling, general and administrative expenses (excluding stock and other equity-based compensation) and excludes from that definition depreciation and amortization and restructuring and impairment charges that are included in the measurement of operating income pursuant to GAAP. Further, this press release includes adjusted OIBDA margin which is also a non-GAAP financial measure. Liberty defines adjusted OIBDA margin as adjusted OIBDA divided by revenue.

Liberty believes adjusted OIBDA is an important indicator of the operational strength and performance of its businesses, including the ability to service debt and fund capital expenditures. In addition, this measure allows management to view operating results and perform analytical comparisons and benchmarking between businesses and identify strategies to improve performance. Because adjusted OIBDA is used as a measure of operating performance, Liberty views operating income as the most directly comparable GAAP measure. Adjusted OIBDA is not meant to replace or supersede operating income or any other GAAP measure, but rather to supplement such GAAP measures in order to present investors with the same information that Liberty's management considers in assessing the results of operations and performance of its assets. Please see the attached schedules for applicable reconciliations.

SCHEDULE 1

1. Excerpts from Earnings Release

Highlights include:

- Increased adjusted OIBDA at Starz Entertainment by 19% and revenue by 8%
- Mailed proxy statement for split-off of Liberty Entertainment Inc. (LEI) and business combination with DIRECTV, set stockholder vote for November 19th
- Reached 52-week highs on all Liberty stocks in the past two months

“Building on momentum from the second quarter, QVC, Starz, and SIRIUS XM posted strong operating results,” stated Greg Maffei, Liberty President and CEO. “Additionally, we made significant progress on the LEI/DIRECTV transaction having received our private letter ruling from the IRS and mailed our proxy statement.”

Liberty Media’s Board of Directors approved a $500 million Liberty Starz stock repurchase authorization and has decided not to proceed with reverse stock splits for the Liberty Capital and Liberty Interactive groups. The redesignation of Liberty Entertainment common stock into Liberty Starz common stock is expected to be completed immediately following the split-off of LEI.

LIBERTY ENTERTAINMENT GROUP — Liberty Entertainment group’s revenue increased 2% to $369 million and adjusted OIBDA increased 16% to $86 million for the quarter. The increase in revenue was primarily driven by results at Starz Entertainment. The increase in adjusted OIBDA was due to positive results at Starz Entertainment partially offset by expenses related to the proposed split-off of LEI.

Starz Entertainment, LLC

Starz Entertainment’s revenue increased 8% to $301 million and adjusted OIBDA increased 19% to $93 million. The $23 million increase in revenue was due to a $22 million increase in rates and a $1 million increase resulting from growth in the average number of subscription units. In the third quarter, Starz experienced an average subscription unit increase of 1% and Encore average subscription units decreased 1% for the quarter.

Starz Entertainment’s operating expenses were flat and SG&A expenses increased $8 million to $35 million for the quarter. Operating expenses were flat primarily due to a reduction in license fees as a result of a reduction in the percentage of first-run movie exhibitions (which have a relatively higher cost per title) as compared to the number of library product exhibitions and lower effective rates, offset by the amortization and write-off of production costs for original series. The increase in SG&A was primarily due to higher sales and marketing expenses and higher personnel costs, which remain 5% lower for the first nine months of 2009 compared to the same period in 2008.

Starz Chairman and CEO Robert B. Clasen said, “Starz Entertainment had another strong quarter, increasing revenue by 8% and adjusted OIBDA by 19%. We do remain concerned about flat or declining subscriber numbers among some of our affiliates — driven by general economic conditions and rate hikes, but are working with our affiliates to improve results. However, we are encouraged by the Television Everywhere initiative which will bring our programming to consumers via the Internet and by the early response to our dramatic series Spartacus: Blood and Sand which will premiere on the Starz channels in January.”

3. Excerpts from Transcript

Company Representative

Building on the momentum from Q2, we posted strong operating results at QVC and Starz in the third quarter.

Subsequent to the end of the quarter, QVC repaid $50 million of the inter-group loan it had to each of the Entertainment and Capital Group.

During the quarter, all of the Liberty stocks reached 52 week highs.

In fact all of them reached it within the last couple of months.

Additionally many of the other equities, public equity portfolio did quite well and the total grew by almost $2 billion lead by gains in DirecTV which was up 10%, a gain of 1.4 billion, Expedia which was up 59% a gain of 612 million, and Sirius XM which was up 24%, a gain of 376 million.

At Liberty Entertainment we continued to experience good results at DirecTV and we had strong revenue and adjusted OIBDA growth at the consolidated companies, notably Starz which Bob Clausen will talk more about in a moment.

We can see the finish line on the long anticipated LEI DirecTV transaction.

We received a private letter ruling from the IRS.

We mailed the effective proxy statement and the stockholder vote is set for November 19th.

Liberty Starz, the resulting tracker newly attributed tracker that will be left has begun trading as well and LSTAV traded just under $50, that's up substantially from the indicated price, indicated looking at the difference between the DirecTV and LMDIA prices up substantially from numbers more like the mid 20s in the Summer.

Because of DirecTV's continued share repurchase, our ownership is now up to 57% of DirecTV.

Notably also, Bob Clausen, he is planning to retire at the end of year or more accurately when we complete the process of search for his successor.

Company Representative

Moving on to Liberty Entertainment, revenue grew 2% in Third Quarter to 369 million while adjusted OIBDA increased 16% to $86 million.

The increase in revenue was primarily driven by a result of Starz Entertainment.

The increase in adjusted OIBDA was due to positive result to Starz Entertainment partially offset by expenses related to the proposed split-off of LEI.

Expected liquidity at Liberty Starz upon completion of the split-off and merger will be approximately $850 million.

This is made up of actual cash balances, loans to Liberty Interactive and $146 million in expected repayments from DirecTV for payments that we've made on the derivative loan.

Expected cash at LEI will be approximately 110-$120 million which includes corporate cash and cash at the Liberty Sports Group.

Now, Bob Clausen will comment on Starz Entertainment and Media.

Company Representative

Starz posted another solid quarter, at Starz Entertainment revenue grew by 8.3% and adjusted OIBDA by 19.2% versus the same quarter a year ago.

The average number of Starz subscriptions grew 1.4% versus a year ago during the quarter but the total number of Starz subscriptions on September 30th was down slightly versus the same date last year.

Encore average subscriptions declined by 1% and the total number of Encore subscribers at quarter end was 2.8% below the same date last year.

Helping to improve results were an increase in average revenue per subscriber and a 2.8% decline in year-to-date operating expenses versus a year ago.

The decline in expenses was largely due to airing fewer first run movies during this quarter versus a year ago reducing our programming costs.

This reduction was partially offset by increased expenses both in production and Marketing for original series.

We continue to pay close attention to some of our affiliates, particularly in the cable arena who have experienced declines in subscriber levels.

It is our belief that there are several reasons for this development, including the general economic conditions, particularly the decline in housing starts, rate increases implemented by some affiliates earlier in the year and a lack of Marketing resources devoted to premium television as a category.

We are working with these affiliates to bring more focus to the premium space and improve sales of Starz and Encore subscriptions.

On the other hand we are encouraged by the progress our affiliates are making toward implementation of the television everywhere strategy which will enable existing authenticated Starz subscribers to receive Starz programming on their computers or portable devices as well as at their TV sets.

Starz has been a pioneer in the development of online delivery of programming.

We welcome the efforts of our distributors in this space.

Over the coming years we're confident that it will add to the value of our services for our affiliates and our consumers.

Our effort to generate awareness that Starz is a destination for originals as well as movies took a major step forward in the third quarter when we introduced the first trailers for Spartacus: Blood and Sand, first at [inaudible], and then the television critics tour.

The worldwide premier of the series took place the first week of October in [inaudible].

These initial unveilings of the series which will air on the Starz channels in January generated considerable buzz as viewers got a first look at some of the innovative techniques that producers Sam Raimi and Rob Tapert used to create the brutal and essential world of the Roman gladiators.

With the feel of movies such as the 300 and Sin City, a first rate cast, and a compelling story, Spartacus will be unlike anything ever before produced for television.

We feel confident it will draw audiences to our channels and other platforms worldwide.

The latter is particularly important because this is the first dramatic series we have produced entirely ourselves and for which we are handling all syndication sales worldwide.

Also in the third quarter we aired the second season of the dramatic series Crash, which we co-produced with Lionsgate, and we announced plans for a new half hour comedy to air next summer called Gravity of Confessions of a Shopalcoholic and Pulp Fiction and we also announced we renewed a second season for our critically acclaimed comedy series Party Down.

On the Starz Media side revenue in the quarter decreased 46.1% and adjusted OIBDA improved by 13.4%; however as I previously noted these numbers fluctuate dramatically from quarter to quarter and year to year depending on the timing of theatrical releases.

We were disappointed in the performance of two Third Quarter releases, Pandorum with Dennis Quaid and Capitalism: A Love Story with Michael Moore, however Law Abiding Citizen with Jamie Foxx in second place at the box office already generated over $60 million in domestic ticket sales well ahead of projections and our best performing movie to date.

Our last film of 2009, Men who Stare at Goats opened at number three with 13.3 million domestic box office also ahead of our plan.

We continue to face a challenging environment in the home video arena because of the general economic conditions and because of the theatrical under performance by some of the overture releases; however the movies are playing well On Demand and in electronic sell-through and will bolster the line up of our premium channels.

Starz Animation Toronto won widespread critical acclaim for the animation work it did on the Tim Burton movie released during the quarter by Universal and anchor based films released three movies in limited theatrical run and for home video sales during the quarter featuring Ashton Kutcher, Michael [inaudible] and Jeff Bridges.

These films will appear on our Starz channels in 2010 and now I'll hand it back to Chris.

So to sum

Across Liberty Entertainment we're going to complete the split off and merger with DirecTV hopefully in the coming few weeks and we will reclassify the new track for Liberty Starz and hopefully launch it well.

Unknown Speaker*

...can you tell us what the amount of the TV production writedown at Starz was this quarter and what your outlook for cost growth might be in the Fourth Quarter given you might spend give or take $15 million marketing Spartacus?

Company Representative

Yeah, our nine months to date we've amortized or put on the P & L about $15 million of programming costs and a lot of that did hit in the third quarter.

We're not going to give guidance for the Fourth Quarter but we'll point out that to your question on Marketing, we would expect the run rate to be pretty similar to the Third Quarter since we had the second season of Crash that had quite a major campaign and would probably be roughly equivalent to some of the lead in we'll be doing in December for Spartacus, with a lot of the spending coming the first part of January.

Unknown Speaker*

A couple questions, both related to Liberty Starz.

First of all on the buyback authorization, is there any limit to how other than the standard SEC limits to how fast you could theoretically deploy that and related to that, how much cash do you actually need around to run the Starz business and then secondly, with a look at ARPU per subscriber was up about 9% year on year in Starz but at the same time you saw subscriber dropping both at Starz and Encore.

Can you talk about what you saw in terms of both revenue, was that driven by mix shift or contract increases and secondly, for the people canceling were those more A la Carte customers or customers in higher digital tiers?

Company Representative

While the Starz team corroborates the real complicated questions I'll do the easy one and by that, we don't have any to my knowledge any limitations as you noted the SECs restrictions on what percentage of volume we can be in terms of share repurchase and as far as cash required to operate at Starz, it's almost a non-issue as you look, it's a free cash flow generating vehicle.

Yes they have some working capital needs but they also don't even have a working capital line.

We are heavily capitalized or overcapitalized at those businesses today as we take the corporate ending and the operating units.

To comment on subscribers, we have again a mix of affiliates who are both A la Carte and then have fixed payments and so that really as you sometimes decline in subscribers your revenue doesn't fall off.

Part of the dynamic we see frankly is there's a shift in some number of subscribers from cable to the Telco business and our economics are a little more attractive when they're a Telco customer than some of the old historic cable deals frankly, and we're pretty flat at DirecTV, Dish is having some issues that flow to us so it's frankly a mixed bag.

We've got growth in some affiliates or at least are holding our own.

We've got some declines in the cable space and in the Dish space.

With regard to cash, we're a cash generator.

We are not needing cash from our parent or from the banks in order to operate so we're a generator and that will be showing up over time on the Liberty Starz reports.

Unknown Speaker*

But in terms of cash on hand it's a pretty minimal amount you need to run the business day-to-day?

Company Representative

Right.

We have a strong Balance Sheet as a stand alone Company.

Unknown Speaker*

... and then secondly, another Spartacus [inaudible].

It looks like you could have 30-35 million of costs on that expense next year.

Are you going to get enough of the continued savings albeit at a slower pace on the reduced amount of studio product to offset against that or are we out to see some margin pressure immediately from Spartacus no matter how wonderful it is as far as the Marketing profile and the brand of Starz?

Company Representative

Okay, we're looking at obviously 2010 and while we're not going to provide guidance I'll make a couple observations.

First of all our output partners are having a better year at the box office than they did in 2008 and that flows through increased costs to us for our new future link film so there will be an increase in programming cost driven by that.

With regard to Spartacus, certainly that will influence our programming cost but remember Spartacus has a long useful life.

We don't amortize everything with its first use.

There's a period over three years in which it will be amortized on its play, so we are expecting programming to go up for those two reasons next year.

Unknown Speaker*

Some of the customer acquisition numbers that you through out there were very impressive.

Any sense of what's driving the new customer acquisition?

Is it just the improvement in the overall economy or are they coming in, are new customers coming in indifferent categories than they have been in the past year or so?

Company Representative

I think it's fair to say that we probably never made more gains than we've made this year and the quality of our channel positioning and that includes getting a second location on DirecTV and a much more highly trafficked neighborhood as well as we're now up to about 25 million Hi-Definition subs and those in I think virtually every case, those present a second channel location in addition to the SD channel so I think we're seeing benefit of just being exposed to more people and more attractive neighborhoods.

Unknown Speaker*

Yes, a quick question for Greg.

Is there a scenario where you could see combining Starz Media with Starz Entertainment before Starz Media's cash flow positive and can you give us some idea as to how we might look at valuation even if it's some time off?

Company Representative

Well I think to be clear it would be complication of Liberty or with Starz Entertainment just the channels so to go into that vehicle.

So when you think about valuation you think not only the run rate whether it be loss or positive but what's the value in the ultimates that are being built up there and that is not today because we have not had as much success at the box office as we would like, that's probably not an enormously scaled number compared to the value of the channel but it would be in the future, it will depend largely on how our ultimate build is going forward and if we have successful films that will create value and make Starz Media worth more, it's not the only element that generates value or not at Starz Media but probably the one with the largest delta and swing factor.

Unknown Speaker*

And therefore, are you still intent on waiting until Starz Media is cash flow positive in order to pursue?

Company Representative

No, I think that we're intent on trying to make sure we have a stable business model and good direction of Starz Media and understand fully where it's going and what it might be worth and what business model is compatible with the channel going on a long term basis.
